GROUP WORKPLACE POLICY

1. Purpose

Electrolux Professional has a long tradition of providing safe and healthy working conditions, and caring for the environment as well as our own employees and people around us.

An important fundament for these efforts is this Group Workplace Policy. It defines minimum acceptable standards for health and safety, environment, labor and human rights – in all countries, wherever we operate. It is based on internationally recognized treaties and agreements, such as the core conventions of the International Labor Organization, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, the International Bill of Human Rights and the UN Global Compact.

All our activities – including the sourcing, manufacturing, distribution and sale of products – must be conducted with respect and consideration for human rights, for human safety and health, and for the environment.

This commitment includes the respect and support of labor rights as set out by the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, as well as the respect and support of broader human rights covered by the International Bill of Human Rights.

We strive for continuous improvement with sustainability as a core focus in all our operations.
